

Frank Anthony Alhino

August 30, 1939 - September 18, 2019

No obituary found for this tribute.

Tribute Wall

“ First I just like to say how saddened I am to hear of Frank's passing. back in 1982 Frank and Maggie were the ones that gave me the opportunity to own my first bull Terrier. It wasn't too much longer after that that Maggie let me borrow a book "the bar sinister" and unfortunately my sweet little bull Terrier ate Maggie's book, what made it extremely bad was that it was a signed gift from a dear friend of Maggie's. I called the house and talked to Frank explaining to him what happened asking him to tell Maggie because I was afraid of how hurt she would be. Frank told me to "Man up" and tell her myself which I did. I promised Maggie that I would replace the book no matter what it took to do it. She was so understanding. It just so happened I called a bookstore and they had a copy I told him I would take it no matter what, it turned out to be actually a better copy than Maggie's was but still it wasn't the one her friend gave her. I remember that conversation with Frank like it was yesterday Frank and Maggie both are some of the nicest people I have ever met. I believe this world will be just a little bit Sadder with Frank not in it & Heaven just that little bit better with him @ gods side.

Robert Hutchinson - May 03, 2020 at 02:33 PM

LO

I too experienced the warmth of the entire Alhino family, their dogs, and friendship. I got my second bull terrier from Action the Phantom's litter in the 1990's. Frank was a proud dad, breeder, husband, and firefighter. I am just now seeing news of his passing and I extend my sorrow and love to the Alhino family. An enormous loss.
Lori Schultz

lori - December 28, 2020 at 09:19 PM