“ I spent countless summers at my aunts and uncles house with my mom while growing up. Some of my favorite memories of my adolescence. My uncle frank was the best damn cabana boy around haha whether us girls were pool side or soaking in the hot tub if he was outside he'd lend a hand. I too fulfilled frank-o-nater orders for him to repay the favor. Oh boy He hated country music which always cracked me up when my mom wanted to play it. He could be a hard cookie but really he was just a big softy. I loved seeing the bond, the laughs and the love that my parents and I shared with my uncle and aunt. I took such pride in making my uncle frank laugh. I'll miss that so much.
