John Anthony "Jack" Wolfgram
April 9, 1948 – June 16, 2025

John Anthony Wolfgram, lovingly known as "Jack" to many of his friends, passed away peacefully on Monday, June 16, 2025, in Sacramento, California. He was 77 years old.

Born on April 9, 1948, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, John was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and friend. On June 14, 1969, he married the love of his life, Hope Wolfgram, and together they built a beautiful family and life rooted in love, hard work, and faith.

John is survived by his beloved wife of 56 years, Hope, and their four children: Angela Espinosa, Cherie Schneider, Holly Beane, and Brian Wolfgram. He was a proud grandfather to eight grandchildren: Israyel, Isaac, Christian, Jacob, Samantha, Logan, Benjamin, and Dakota "Little Jack". He is also remembered fondly by many nieces, nephews, and extended family.

He was preceded in death by his parents, Gilbert and Bernadette Wolfgram, and his sister, Carol Norman.

John and Hope were the founders of Airwolf Express, a trucking and logistics company that continues to operate today. His strong work ethic and entrepreneurial spirit helped guide the company's success and reflected his deep commitment to providing for his family.

John had a great love for music. He was often found singing and playing the guitar. His passion for melodies and rhythms transformed ordinary moments into unforgettable experiences creating not only joy for those who listened but giving him the opportunity for swapping stories with both old and new friends. A natural thinker and storyteller, he brought wisdom and warmth to every conversation. Above all, he loved his family with his whole heart, and his presence will be profoundly missed.

John's legacy of faith, love, laughter, music, and family will live on in all who knew him.
