

Kelsey Elise Weiss

March 7, 1989 - January 15, 2025

In Loving Memory of Kelsey Elise Weiss

March 7, 1989 – January 15, 2025

With the heaviest of hearts, our family announces the passing of Kelsey Elise Weiss. Kelsey was a devoted wife, loving mother, cherished daughter and sister, and loyal friend who made life brighter for everyone she knew.

Kelsey was born in La Jolla, California, to Richard Bowman and Iza Garcia. She grew up in Las Vegas, Nevada, where her energy and curiosity shone even as a child. She eventually found her true home in Roseville, California. There she and her husband Seth, together for 22 years, built a life overflowing with love, laughter, and beautiful chaos. Together, they raised three incredible children—Edie, Faye, and Benjamin—who were the center of Kelsey's universe.

Kelsey was the kind of mom who was all-in. She was the loudest cheerleader at soccer games and gymnastic meets, the first to volunteer for school projects, and the one who made every small moment feel special. Her love for her kids was boundless, and she never missed a chance to show them how proud she was of the amazing people they are becoming.

Kelsey lived a life marked by purpose, love, and beauty. She found peace and strength in her connection to something greater than herself through her faith, yoga, meditation and her passion for landscapes, flowers, and plants. With her impeccable eye for beauty and innate creativity, Kelsey built a successful landscape design business, transforming ordinary spaces into extraordinary works of art. Her talent for crafting breathtaking designs reflected her reverence for the beauty of the natural world.

To Kelsey, every stranger was a friend. She had a way of connecting with people that was nothing short of magical. Whether you'd known her for years or just met her in line at the grocery store, Kelsey had this ability to make you feel seen, understood, and valued. She offered her wisdom freely, her kindness without hesitation, and her humor when it was needed most. She leaves behind a lasting impact on all who knew her and a reminder to live each day with purpose and intention. She passed away peacefully in Roseville, California, after a courageous battle with cancer.

Kelsey is survived by her husband Seth Weiss, daughter Edie Weiss, daughter Faye Weiss, son Benjamin Weiss, father Richard Bowman, mother Iza Garcia, sister Karri Bowman, sister Erika Vanecek, brother Mason Bowman, sister Hanna Benny, and three nephews.

A celebration of Kelsey's life will be held on January 28, 2025 at 3pm at Morgan Oaks Eternal Preserve in Lincoln, California. Reception to follow.

Cemetery Details

Morgan Oaks Eternal Preserve

421 Fleming Road
Lincoln, CA 95648

Previous Events

Celebration of Life

JAN 28. 3:00 PM (PT)

Morgan Oaks Eternal Preserve
421 Fleming Road
Lincoln, CA 95648

Tribute Wall

LG

“ My heartfelt condolences to your family. May the beautiful memories you shared bring you comfort. ”

Livia Garcia - January 28, 2025 at 08:25 AM

OC

“ My condolences to the family, May she RIP 🙏 from Orlando Campos, God bless ”

Orlando Campos - January 27, 2025 at 03:36 PM